- b. Words importing the singular shall, where the context permits or requires, include the plural and vice versa. Words importing gender or the neuter shall include both genders and the neuter. Words importing persons shall, where the context permits or requires, include natural persons, any public bodies and anybody of persons, corporate or unincorporated.
- c. This Service Agreement comprises the entire Agreement between the Parties and no earlier representation or agreement, whether oral or in writing, in relation to any matter dealt with in this Service Agreement shall have any effect from the date of this Service Agreement.
- d. Customer acknowledges and agrees that GSC may amend this Service Agreement and/or the Terms and Conditions at any time by providing notice. The customer is deemed to accept and agrees to the amendment unless it notifies GSC to the contrary. Each amendment notice shall be issued by way of notification in writing and sent by electronic mail, airmail, postage prepaid, facsimile transmission or cable. Customer acknowledges and agrees that it is its sole responsibility to monitor the release of any amendments by regularly accessing GSC website and checking for same. If Customer does object to the amendment, the amendment will not be binding, but the Customer's Precious Metals Account will be suspended and will be required to be closed as soon as is reasonably practicable. Any amendment to this Service Agreement will come into effect on the date specified by GSC. Any amended Service Agreement will supersede any previous agreement between the Parties and shall govern any transaction entered into after, or outstanding on, the date of the new Service Agreement coming into effect.

2. Securing Ownership

- a. The Customer shall obtain full and unencumbered ownership of the Bullion when the process outlined below is completed ('Completion'):
 - i. Parties have signed this Agreement; and
 - ii. The Customer has made payment of the Initial Fees.
- b. The Customer's ownership of the Bullion will be evidence by the following documents which the Company will provide the Customer upon Completion:
 - i. Invoice; and
 - ii. Certificate of Ownership (a sample copy of the Certificate of Ownership is attached at Schedule 2).

3. Secured Storage of Customer's Bullion

- a. The Company shall act as Bailee and take possession of the Bullion belonging to the Customer solely for the purposes of storing it. As evidenced by the invoice and certificate of ownership issued by the Company to the Customer, the legal title in the Bullion shall vest in the Customer throughout the period of storage at the Facility, subject to the terms of this Agreement;
- b. The Company undertakes to ensure adequate protection against any liabilities including, but not limited to theft, employee infidelity and mysterious disappearance;
- c. The Company shall make arrangements for the storage, transportation and insurance of the Customer's Bullion to be safely and securely stored within GSC Vault Network as may be necessary in the circumstances;
- d. With reference to Clause 3c, this includes the authority for the Company to enter into contracts on the Customer's behalf, without prior notice, as the agent, limited in scope to the storage, transportation or insurance of the Customer's Bullion.

- e. For the purposes of storing and identifying the Customer's Bullion, the Company will allow the Bullion to be packaged into transparent and uniquely identifiable tamper proof bags. The vault operator at the Facility will issue a unique seal code for each bag. This shall be referred to as 'the Packaging Procedure'.
- f. The Company may change or improve the Packaging Procedure at any as it may become necessary, so as to allow the Company to comply with the requirements of its sub-contractors and/or of the Facility. The Company assures its Customers that it will make best endeavors to secure the highest standards of packaging at all times.
- g. The Company assures its Customers a high level of segregation of the Bullion in relation to the Service provided by the Company. The Customer's Bullion shall be kept physically separate at all times from all other items in storage at the Facility.
- h. The Company further assures its Customers and confirms that the Bullion will not be used in any form of financial transactions, including but not limited to borrowing or lending, without prior instructions and/or approval from the Customer.
- i. The Company reserves the right to change the manner in which the Bullion is stored, if this is necessitated due to its contractual obligations with its independent contractors (including the Facility), or otherwise.
- j. The Customer also has the option to store Bullion with the Company, which was previously not stored and purchased from the Company. In such a scenario where the Customer has previously taken Final Delivery of the Bullion and now wishes to store the Bullion with the Company again, the Company makes no warranty concerning the weight, fineness, content, identification, authenticity, or value of any such Bullion which the Customer chooses to store in the Facility.

4. Services and Fees

- a. The Customer agrees to make payment of the Fees to the Company in accordance with fee structure described in Schedule 1 so as to continue taking advantage of the Service provided by the Company.
- b. Payment shall be made by the Customer to the Company promptly 1 week before the expiration of their pre-paid storage fees.
- c. The Company may review and amend the fee structure in Schedule 1 by giving thirty (30) days' prior notice to the Customer. In case of disagreement with the amended fee structure in Schedule 1, The Customer shall give written notice to the Company to renegotiate the amended terms within 30 days of notice of the amended fee structure;

- d. The Customer grants the Company a security interest and lien on the Bullion stored under this Agreement (“Security Interest and Lien”).
- e. The Customer agrees that the Company may exercise this Security Interest and Lien to secure payment of the Expenses, if payment is not made within thirty (30) days of it being due.
- f. Subject to Clause 4(e) above, the Company may exercise this Security Interest and Lien at any time by converting OR selling, part OR all of the Bullion belonging to the Customer in order to off-set any Expenses incurred by the Company in the enforcement of this Agreement.
 - i. Where such conversion of the Bullion occurs, the Company may at its discretion, convert the Bullion to a form that it deems fit in order to off-set any further Expenses incurred by the Company.
 - ii. Where such sale of Bullion does not produce sufficient monies to off-set the Expenses incurred by the Company, the Company may, at its sole discretion, take whatever steps it deems necessary against the Customer to recuperate the balance amount.
 - iii. In the event that the sale of such Bullion results in any excess proceeds after the deduction of the Expenses, the Company shall remit these excess proceeds to the Customer.

5. Inspection of the Bullion

- a. The Customer may head down to the Facility to inspect their Bullion at any time, subject to:
 - i. the rules of the Facility;
 - ii. having made an appointment with the Company not less than three (3) business days before the proposed visit date;
 - iii. The Company approving the Customer’s request.
- b. The Company shall make best endeavors to allow the Customer access to the Bullion for the Customer’s inspection purposes.
- c. Each inspection by the Customer shall be subject to an Inspection Fee.
- d. Upon approval of the Customer’s request, the Company will subsequently inform the Customer of the prevailing access procedures, which the Customer agrees to abide by.

- e. The Customer agrees to comply with all rules and regulations set by the Facility with regard to access to the Bullion, including allowing the Facility to issue a new unique identification code (“UIC”) to the parcel if a parcel sealed with a UIC needs to be broken for inspection purposes.
- f. For avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not be responsible or liable in any way if the Customer is denied access to the Bullion as a result of a decision made by the employees of the Facility.
- g. The Customer also agrees to take full responsibility and liability for any Loss of the Bullion of any kind that may occur as a result of the Bullion being handled by the Customer, or that may occur as a result of the Customer having handled the Bullion, whether discovered during the inspection, during a subsequent inspection, or at Final Delivery.

6. Audit

- a. The Customer shall receive monthly updates from the Company on the inventory status of their Bullion.
- b. The Company shall also conduct an annual audit of the Bullion as a service to its Customers.
- c. In relation to Clauses 6(a) and 6(b), the Customer agrees to allow the Company, or its appointed personnel, to handle the Bullion, including unpacking the Bullion and breaking of the outer seal of the parcel the Bullion may be in. Where parcels sealed with a UIC are broken for auditing and/or inspection purposes, the Customer agrees to allow the Facility to issue a new UIC for the parcel.

7. Transfer and Sub-bailment of Bullion

- a. The Company may:
 - i. allow the transfer of the Bullion within different vaults in the Facility, without prior notice to the Customer; and
 - ii. allow sub-bailment of the Bullion from the GSC Vault Network to another secure facility of its choice, without prior notice to the Customer. Where the Bullion is located in a Free Trade Zone at the time when proposed sub-bailment is to be carried out, the Company shall ensure that any such sub-bailment of the Bullion will be to another secure facility in a Free Trade Zone.
 - iii. The company undertakes to maintain insurance policies, which provide adequate protection against any liabilities for the loss, damager or destruction of the Customer's Bullion. The Company will furnish the Customer with a certificate evidencing such insurance, upon request.

- b. Where such transfer or sub-bailment is necessitated due to the Company's contractual obligations with its independent contractors (including the Facility) or otherwise, the Company shall notify the Customer of such transfer or sub-bailment within seven (7) business days of the said transfer or sub-bailment being carried out.
- c. Where such transfer or sub-bailment is based on the Company's own decision, the Customer shall be notified a minimum of seven (7) business days in advance of the said transfer or sub-bailment.

8. Insurance

- a. The Company is not an insurer. The Company will, at its own expense, maintain insurance policies, which policies shall insure the Company against such risks assumed by the Company, as described in this Agreement hereof, subject always to the provisions and exclusions contained in this Agreement. The Company will provide the Customer with a certificate evidencing such insurance, upon request.

9. Period of Responsibility

- a. The Company's liability with regard to the Bullion shall commence from the time of purchase of the Bullion by the Customer and shall remain in effect till the time of Final Delivery of the Bullion to the Customer, subject to Clauses 14 as instructed by the Customer or in accordance with the termination clause (Clause 19) in this Agreement.

10. Liability

- a. As set out in this Agreement, the Company shall be liable when the possession of the Metal is taken, upon a Company's employee signing a receipt for the Metal, following a physical count of the number of bars, coins, or other form of Metal. The parties hereto expressly understand and agree that the Company does not assume any liability as to the authenticity or assay characteristics of any Metal.
- b. For avoidance of doubt, the Company shall not be liable for (including any consequences arising from these):
 - i. Special, direct or indirect consequential loss or damage, including but not limited to loss of profits, revenue, business opportunity or reputation, whether or not caused by the Company's fault or neglect and regardless of whether the Company has knowledge or not that such loss or damage may result. For avoidance of doubt, in the event of a Loss of the Bullion due to negligence of the Company, the Company will be liable to the Customer for the amount calculated according to the method in Clause 12(a) below and Schedule 3;

- ii. In the event of an inspection of the Customer Bullion by the Customer, the Customer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company any loss or destruction, shortage or mysterious disappearance of the Bullion, except where the Company is shown to be negligent;
 - iii. Any Loss arising from the negligence or willful misconduct of the Customer;
 - iv. Any Loss arising from the Customer's failure to comply with the Release Procedure (defined in Clause 14 below);
 - v. Any Loss to the Bullion resulting from (i) ordinary leakage, ordinary loss in weight or volume, shrinkage, ordinary wear and tear; (ii) inherent vice, defect or nature of the Bullion; or (iii) natural oxidization; and
 - vi. Confiscation, seizure, appropriation, expropriation, requisition for title of use or willful destruction of the Bullion under any order of the government and/or public authority.
- c. A lawyer shall be engaged in the event that GSC undergoes liquidation to ensure the safe return of clients' storage items.

11. Limit of Liability

- a. In case of Loss of the Bullion while being stored under the responsibility of the Company, both parties shall promptly and diligently assist each other and shall take all reasonable steps to assure the maximum amount of salvage at a minimum cost.
- b. The Company shall, as reasonably determined and in good faith, expedite the salvage process and determine the date for which the method in Schedule 3 shall be applicable to, for the purposes of calculating the liability of the Company to the Customer for the Loss of the Bullion.
- c. The Customer hereby agrees to and does assign to the Company all of its right, title and interest in the property rights of recovery against third parties that are the subject of a claim and to execute any documents necessary to perfect such assignment upon request by the Company;
- d. For avoidance of doubt, where the Company is liable to pay the Customer for Loss of the Bullion as per the terms of this Agreement, the Company's liability shall be calculated by calculating the cost of the Bullion (according to its weight) at the rate chosen in Schedule 3, on the date chosen as per Clause 11(b) above (“Compensation”).

- e. Where Loss has occurred to the Customer’s Bullion, the Company may, at its sole discretion, offer to replace the defective Bullion with other similar type of Bullion of equal weight, quality and finesse (“Offer”).
- f. The Customer agrees to accept the Company’s Offer, where such an Offer is made by the Company, in lieu of receiving Compensation from the Company.
- g. The Customer understands and agrees that the Company’s maximum liability in the event of any Loss of Bullion shall be capped at a maximum amount of US$20,000,000.00 (“Maximum Liability Limit”).
- h. The Customer agrees that the liability of the Company, while the Bullion is being stored under the responsibility of the Company, shall not exceed the Maximum Liability Limit under any circumstances.
- i. This Clause 11 will remain valid notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any invoice, receipt or other document delivered to or by the Company in relation to the Bullion handled by it.
- j. The Customer also agrees to indemnify the Company for any claims by a third party relating to or for the Loss of the Bullion (including legal fees), that is in excess of the Maximum Liability Limit.

12. Customer’s Acknowledgements, Representations and Warranties

- a. The Customer acknowledges, represents and gives the following warranties:
 - i. Where there is more than one owner of this account, the owners jointly and separately agree that they shall hold all Bullion as joint tenants, with Rights of Survivorship attached. In such a scenario, each owner shall act as an agent for the rest of the owners and shall have the right to give instructions to the Company. Instructions from any singular owner shall be deemed to have been approved and authorised by the rest of the owners of this account. The Company will not be held responsible for the consequences of acting on the instructions of a singular owner, where the account has more than 1 owner;
 - ii. All representations made to the Company by the Customer pursuant to this Agreement are true;

- iii. The Customer shall indemnify the Company from all loss, cost and expense (including reasonable legal fees) which the Company pays or incurs as a result or arising out of any dispute or litigation, whether instituted by the Company or others, regarding the Customer's right, title or interest in the Bullion;
- iv. None of the Bullion purchased by the Customer is an attempt at money laundering, is linked to terrorist activities, or to any other illegal activities;
- v. The Customer agrees that the Bullion may be subject to all required security controls of the government, and that the Company will submit to all required security controls, without being held responsible for the consequences;
- vi. The Customer consents to a search of the Bullion where it is required by the Facility or the government;
- vii. The Customer will provide the Company with specimen signatures, as and when the Company requires, so as to allow the Company to forward the signatures to its sub-contractors, or to the Facility, as may be necessary; and
- viii. The Customer is responsible for informing the Company in writing of any change in or to the Customer's particulars, including but not limited to a change in the Customer's correspondence address (as reflected in Schedule 4). Any loss arising from failure to do so shall be borne by the Customer.

13. Final Delivery

- a. In exchange for the Customer receiving the Bullion during Final Delivery, the Customer agrees to stringently follow the following release procedures:
 - i. All Expenses incurred by the Company during the course of this Agreement must be paid by the Customer to the Company prior to receiving Final Delivery. This would include payment of the Release Fee;
 - ii. The Customer will give the Company a minimum of two (2) business days' prior notice;
 - iii. The Customer will sign a release form to acknowledge receiving the Bullion. Such a release form will be provided by the Company in order to effect Final Delivery. The release form will also serve as the instructions to the vault company at the Facility to release the Bullion to the Customer;
 - iv. The Customer shall submit the Certificate of Ownership described in Clause 2(b), back to the Company, upon demand; and

- v. The Customer will make detailed notations on the release form if there is any Loss to the Bullion at the time of Final Delivery, failing which, the Customer shall not have any claim against the Company for the Loss.
- b. Clauses 13(a)(i) to 13(a)(v) will collectively be referred to as the 'Release Procedure'.
- c. In order to provide the Customer with the additional service of transporting the Bullion, the Company will, at its sole discretion, ship the Bullion to a destination specified by the Customer (whether within or outside Singapore) ('Final Destination') in order to make Final Delivery. In the event that the Company agrees to ship the Bullion, the Customer agrees to be bound by the following conditions:
 - i. All costs/expenses incurred in relation to the shipping to the Final Destination shall be borne by the Customer (including costs for obtaining permits, taxes, freight, duties, charges, custom duties, etc. where necessary);
 - ii. The Customer shall bear the responsibility for obtaining all permits, franchises, licenses or other authorizations needed for shipment to international destinations;
 - iii. If the Company agrees to ship the Bullion to the Final Destination, the Company will bear the responsibility for any Loss to the Bullion till the Bullion is delivered as mutually agreed between the Customer and the Company prior to the shipping; and

14. Notice of Claim and Filing for Loss or Damage to the Bullion

- a. In addition to complying with the Release Procedure, the Customer agrees to make any claim for Loss of the Bullion to the Company within seven (7) days after receiving the Final Delivery, or after Customer is notified by the Company of any Loss to the Bullion, whichever is earlier.
- b. In addition to the requirements mentioned in Clause 14(a) above, the Customer also agrees to launch any legal action with regard to Loss to the Bullion within nine (9) months after becoming aware of such Loss, or nine (9) months after the Final Delivery, whichever is earlier.
- c. The Customer agrees to cooperate with the Company, or its appointed representatives, in all respects with regard to any claim as to recovery for Loss to the Bullion.

15. Default of Customer

- a. The Customer shall indemnify and hold the Company and its affiliates, directors, officers and shareholders harmless from and against any and all costs, damages, expenses, liabilities and obligations, including, without limitation, reasonable legal costs that the Company may incur as a result of, or in connection with:
 - i. Any breach of any representation or warranty made by the Customer to the Company; or
 - ii. The Customer's failure to comply with any clause in this Agreement, or any other policies adopted by the Company.

16. Amendment of terms

- a. The Customer understands and agrees that the Company may amend the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement at any time by posting the amended terms on the Company website. The amended terms will become effective immediately upon posting, except as otherwise provided in this Agreement. These amendments will be made known to Customer 30 days in advance via email before posting on the Company website. In case of disagreement, the Customer shall give written notice to the Company to renegotiate the amended terms within 30 days of notice upon posting of the amendments by the Company;

17. Third Party Rights

- a. Third parties may not rely on the Contract (Right of Third parties) Act (Chapter 53B) to enforce this Agreement.
- b. In events of Survivorship, the administrators of the Customer's estate should inform the Company of the Customer's death, accompanied by the death certificate, as soon as reasonably practicable.
- c. Upon being notified of the Customer's death, the Company shall take appropriate measures to verify the information. Relevant supporting documents are to be provided to the Company for verification.
- d. Unless the Company has good reason to doubt the report of the Customer's death, the Company shall within 30 days start to process the notification of the Customer's death in good faith.

18. Confidentiality

- a. The Customer agrees that all information in relation to and contained in this Agreement, regardless of whether the Agreement is in force at the material time, will be kept confidential.

- b. The Company values the privacy and confidentiality of its customers and assures the Customer that it shall not divulge any information relating this Agreement to anyone without permission of the Customer, or as stated in the terms of this Agreement.
- c. The Company may disclose relevant portions of the Agreement (including the entire Agreement) and any other information relating to it, if required to do so under Singapore law (whether by way of statute or through a Court order).
- d. The Customer understands and agrees that the Company may disclose this Agreement and any other information relating to it to its employees, affiliates, subsidiaries, agents, servants, independent contractors, and any and all other individuals on a need-to-know basis, so as to perform its part of the Agreement and to fulfill its regulatory obligations and requirements.

19. Termination of Agreement

- a. This Agreement shall commence on the date first above written and shall continue until cancelled, by either party, on a thirty (30) days' written notice. Upon such termination, the Company shall deliver all of the Customer's Bullion to an agreed upon location for the Customer's collection.
- b. Upon Termination of the Agreement, the Customer shall perform either of the steps;
 - i. By signing a Release Form (sample copy attached at Schedule 5), as mentioned in Clause 14; or
 - ii. By signing the Transfer of Ownership Form (sample copy attached at Schedule 6);

And following any procedures set out in the said forms or in this Agreement.

- c. For avoidance of doubt, the Company may change the terms in the Release Form or the Transfer of Ownership Form after the signing of this Agreement, without notice to the Customer.
- d. The Company may terminate this Agreement upon thirty (30) days' notice given to the Customer.
- e. The Company shall send such notice via any means of communication to the Customer, as provided by the Customer in Schedule 4.
- f. Should such termination occur, regardless of the identity of the terminating party, the Customer shall be responsible for the payment of all fees and costs incurred for the removal of the Bullion stored hereunder.

- g. Where the Expenses incurred have not been paid by the Customer, the Company reserves the right not to release the Bullion to the Customer.
- h. If the Bullion is not removed from the Facility by the Customer at the end of the fifteen (15) days' notice (after having reimbursed the Company for all Expenses incurred by the Company), the Company reserves the right to dispose the Bullion as it deems fit (including conducting a sale of the Bullion), without being liable for any damages suffered by the Customer.
- i. The Company may terminate this Agreement forthwith if at any time:
 - i. The Customer is in material or persistent breach of any of the terms of this Agreement;
 - ii. The Customer goes into liquidation, or is declared a bankrupt;
 - iii. The Customer is suspected to be using the Service of the Company for money laundering, terrorism related causes or for any other illegal purposes;
 - iv. The Customer fails to accept a substantive proposal made by the Company which subsequently affects the nature of the relationship anticipated by this Agreement; or
 - v. The Customer fails to make punctual payment of the Fees in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

20. Entire Agreement and Enforceability

- a. The Parties to this Agreement agree that the terms and conditions of this Agreement, including all Appendixes, Schedules and Annexes hereto, unless otherwise agreed in writing and signed by the Parties, constitute the entire Agreement between the Parties with respect to the services provided by the Company to the Customer, as hereinafter described.
- b. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provisions of this Agreement (including all Appendixes, Schedules and Annexes) shall not affect the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of this Agreement.

21. Assignment

- a. This Agreement is non-assignable by the Customer.

22. Governing Law

- a. This Agreement shall be governed and interpreted according to the laws of Singapore.
- b. Any action of the Company or of the Customer, which does not comply with Singapore laws shall be deemed void.

23. Dispute Resolution

- a. Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration in Singapore in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre ("SIAC Rules") for the time being in force, which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference in this clause.
- b. The Tribunal shall consist of 1 arbitrator.
- c. The language of the arbitration shall be English.

24. Miscellaneous

- a. Any notice by the Company shall be communicated to the Customer via telephone, email, letter, or any means of correspondence deemed appropriate by GSC, or as stated by the Customer in Schedule 4. In the event of a letter, the notice shall be deemed to be served on the fifth (5th) day from mailing, regardless of whether the Customer has received it or not. Faxed notices shall be deemed to have been received immediately.
- b. The Company does not endorse any broker and does not guarantee the investment of any Customer. Investments in physical property are typically long-term investments. Due to price fluctuations, short-term profits cannot be assured. Also, the company pays no interest or dividends. The Company makes no representations about the advisability of purchasing the Bullion as an investment or financing such a purchase.
- c. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that he/she has no right or authority to represent the Company in any way in relation to this Agreement or otherwise.
- d. The Company may represent the Customer to the extent necessary to accomplish its obligations under this Agreement.
- e. Either Party's failure to require strict compliance with any provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel to later demand strict compliance with that, or any of the other provisions in this Agreement.
- f. The sub-headings used in this Agreement are for convenience of the Parties and do not affect or influence the enforcement of this Agreement in any way.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the Parties has caused this Agreement to be executed by its duly authorized officer or by themselves:
